Singing With J6ers

On this fourth anniversary of the January 6, 2021, demonstrations on Capitol Hill, J6 prisoners are asking all Americans to join them in a gesture of patriotism and solidarity.

Every night, J6ers across the country sing the national anthem at 9:00. Because many are hopeful that January 19 this year will be their last recital from behind bars, they'd like everyone in America to join them on that day.

Below is a letter from J6 prisoner Kelly Meggs, former leader of the Florida Oath Keepers who is responsible for this nightly constitutional. He started it in the infamous D.C. gulag where he began his 12-year sentence — much of it in solitary confinement. Here's his invitation:

January 19th, 2025, could be the last time that the anthem is sung at 9pm from prisons across our country.

This needs to be commemorated with a push for a nationwide singing of the Anthem at 9 p.m. Eastern Time on the 19th as the final singing of the anthem by J6 prisoners. If Trump issues pardons on the 20th some if not all could be out that night with others to follow the 21st.

Please spread the word that the anthem will be sung all together at 9 p.m. Eastern Standard Time on the 19th and encourage those on your platforms to sing it with us.

One Nation Under God, Indivisible
[with] JUSTICE FOR ALL!

Thank you

Kelly Meggs
