This is the full first episode of 2A For Today! I want to kickoff this program by giving you all a little background on how I see the Second Amendment, so that you can get an idea of why I am passionate about supporting and defending it.

The founders of this country took many of their cues on morality and what constitutes justice and law from the word of God. I don't believe that they were all Christians, but you don't have to have the Holy Spirit to read the Old and New Testaments and witness the vast wisdom and moral clarity that exudes from its pages.

I believe that the founders wanted to codify protecting our rights to perform the two great commands in the first two amendments.
