Africans are waking up to the dangerous agendas being pushed by Big Pharma and the one-world-order crowd, South African journalist and Children's Health Defense Africa Chapter Executive Director Shabnam Palesa Mohamed told The New American magazine's Alex Newman in this episode of Conversations That Matter. Africans were already skeptical of governments, international organizations and corporate colonialists. But the COVID pandemic has super-charged that awakening. Still, globalist institutions are fighting back, working to undermine the sovereignty of African nations. Mohamed is helping to lead a broad coalition across the continent exposing the evil and pushing it back.
