“Civil rights” groups are demanding the Francis Scott Key Bridge be renamed once it’s rebuilt because it honors someone who held slaves. This aligns with the broader anti-white narrative that’s been sown into the public consciousness to create division and fuel hate. Former Trump-era Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Interior Jeremy Carl recently published a book detailing how the esoteric forces behind this anti-white agenda are using reparations and “land acknowledgments” as vehicles designed to ultimately lead to the confiscation of whites’ property.

Also in this episode:

@ 22:13 | Arizona’s highest court just upheld an old law that bans abortion almost completely — but will the state’s top cop enforce it?

@ 33:01 | An international court just sided with a group of women who blame the country of Switzerland for their health problems.
