The Eye-popping Cost of Federal Regulations

The New American senior editor, Bill Jasper describes the mind blowing size, cost and wastefulness of our federal regulatory state. According to the Competitive Enterprise Institute's "Ten Thousand Commandments" report, the federal regulations took nearly a two trillion bite out the U.S. economy in 2013. Will you allow the federal regulatory monsters to devour our wealth and our freedoms or are you going to hold your congressmen accountable?
