The cover story for the March 28 issue of The New American is titled “Border Breakdown: Treason, not Incompetence.” Treason is a very strong word. It that really what is happening? In this episode of “Beyond the Cover,” host Gary Benoit interviews the story’s author, R. Cort Kirkwood, who makes a very strong case that the border breakdown is by design, not incompetence, and that the word treason is apropos. He also explains why the political elites have effectively erased the border.
