The truckers comprising Canada's Freedom Convoy have been portrayed as Nazis, racists, terrorists, and a tiny minority who do not represent Canadians. But the truth is very different: They and their supporters love freedom, oppose tyranny, and enjoy popular support. In this episode of "Beyond the Cover," host Gary Benoit interviews New American senior editor Rebecca Terrell, who has been in contact with Canadian sources to stay abreast with what's really happening in Canada. Rebecca offers a refreshingly honest view of the truckers and their supporters that's unskewed by the major media smear artists. She's been covering the story for The New American both online and in print. To see coverage of the Freedom Convoy, click here. To subscribe to The New American, click here.
