The West is being re-paganized and inducted into the New Age and Occult through its elites and major pagan and occult gatherings such as Burning Man, explained academic and researcher Carl Teichrib in this interview on Behind The Deep State with The New American magazine's Alex Newman.

Teichrib, who attends Burning Man and other similar events each year, explained that it is much more than just a hedonistic festival. In fact, attendees often include a who's who of the Silicon Valley elite, even the CEOs of major Big Tech companies that today dominate the world. Political leaders often attend too.

All of it is part of a much broader trend that is occurring throughout the Western world formerly known as Christendom. Teichrib, who has written books about this, urges Christians to consider the implications and prepare to live in a post-Christian, pagan-style society if this is not stopped.
