At Charlie Kirk's Turning Point USA AmericaFest, virtually the entire MAGA movement turned their guns at each other, creating a circular firing squad. The main issues: U.S. foreign aid, the affordability crisis, immigration, support for Israel, and of course the controversial Nazi-loving Gen Z broadcaster Nicholas J. Fuentes.

The controversy is alarming, said Andrew Muller to The New American's Alex Newman in this episode of Behind The Deep State, arguing that the onslaught of infighting, personal attacks, and lack of good-hearted debate is giving a foothold for the Left and the Deep State to capitalize on the disunity.

Muller, who was on the ground at AmericaFest reporting for The New American, shared that the influence of Fuentes and his authoritarian-loving posse was undeniable and must be addressed in good faith for Charlie Kirk's coalition to survive.
