Farmers and ranchers around the world have a bullseye on their operations as Big Business and Big Government join forces to transform the food supply and centralize control, warns journalist Alex Newman in this episode of Behind The Deep State. From South Africa and Brazil to China and the West, the pretexts for destroying independent food producers vary. But the end goal is the same everywhere: Total control of humanity. Learn about this evil so you can sound the alarm and protect our food security before it's too late.
