Dr. Sheri Tenpenny: “Religion of Vaccinology” Must Be Stopped

Robert F. Kennedy Jr.’s Health and Human Services has been questioning the safety and efficacy of vaccines, even replacing the entire Advisory Committee on Immunization Practices (ACIP), now co-chaired by Dr. Robert Malone, to review currently recommended shots. While the progress is significant, Americans must demand accountability for pandemic crimes and focus on helping victims, explains Dr. Sheri Tenpenny to The New American’s Alex Newman for Conversations That Matter.

To illustrate the crisis, Dr. Tenpenny, an osteopathic doctor, shared that the Vaccine Adverse Event Reporting System (VAERS), which only received about 8,000 annual reports pre-COVID, has 1.6 million records of COVID-19 “vaccine” injuries. Today, not a single death has been compensated.

Officials at Health and Human Services, including RFK Jr., must be given time to sort out this mess, but Americans should not relent in “holding their feet to the fire” to ensure it happens, Dr. Tenpenny concluded.
