The horrifying disclosure unmasking the depravity behind Jeffrey Epstein's crimes and connections to Deep State Insiders has Americans rightfully asking, "When will justice be served?"

Of course, Epstein allegedly committed suicide, and Ghislaine Maxwell, his girlfriend and right-hand lady, is serving a 20-year sentence for trafficking minors. Now all eyes are fixed on the host of elites who worked with Epstein and are presently walking free.

In the U.S., only three individuals, apart from Maxwell, have been deposed by Congress and placed under oath to answer for their role in Epstein's dark play: Mr. Leslie Wexner and Bill and Hillary Clinton. In this must-see episode of Behind The Deep State, The New American's Alex Newman and Andrew Muller review the depositions and discuss next steps for justice in this horrendous scandal.
