Facing Blows From Trump, Globalists March On

Globalists are hurting but not out, explains The New American Senior Editor Alex Newman in this episode of Behind The Deep State.

Despite several damaging blows to globalist institutions such as the World Health Organization (WHO) and the United Nations “education” agency (UNESCO) by President Trump, Deep State globalists made key advances on the “climate” front with a major new ruling. The battle is raging, Newman explains.

In recent weeks, the U.S. government withdrew from UNESCO and rejected proposed amendments to the WHO’s “International Health Regulations.” UNESCO is the key UN agency that is responsible for indoctrinating youth worldwide into globalism and other UN-backed ideologies. The WHO changes would have massively empowered the agency responsible for so much tyranny and carnage during Covid.

But despite those blows, the UN’s “World Court,” officially known as the International Court of Justice, doubled down on globalism. In a major opinion in late July, the “court” claimed governments have a legal “duty” under “international law” to obey the UN’s demands on stopping alleged man-made global warming.
