Trump Takes Chainsaw to Deep State Schemes

President Donald Trump has taken a chainsaw to the Deep State and some of its programs with a whirlwind of executive orders in just the first few days of his administration, explains The New American magazine Senior Editor Alex Newman on this episode of Behind The Deep State. From slashing regulations and freezing foreign aid to undoing Biden's schemes and withdrawing from globalist organizations, it has been a fast-paced start. Even more importantly, perhaps, God has repeatedly been acknowledged throughout the process. Join us for a look at how the first few days have gone, and how the next four years might go.
