The United Nations plot to impose global taxes on international shipping was approved at a meeting of the International Maritime Organization this month, setting the stage for the first-ever global tax to fuel global government, warns The New American magazine's Alex Newman in this episode of Behind The Deep State. The Deep State has been working to empower "global governance" like this for generations. And despite opposition from the Trump administration and the U.S. government, the plan is moving ahead rapidly, with profound implications for humanity.
