The Warren Commission's investigation into the assassination of John F. Kennedy is dismissed as a farce by seasoned researcher and author Donald Jeffries, who contends that it failed to genuinely explore crucial details.

In this interview with The New American, Mr. Jeffries delves into his recently released book, "Pipe the Bimbo in Red: Dean Andrews, Jim Garrison, and the Conspiracy to Kill JFK" (co-authored with William Matson Law). He explores the New Orleans ground-level plot to assassinate the president, emphasizing how federal agencies, including the CIA and the FBI, manipulated all participants and groomed Lee Harvey Oswald to be a patsy. Jeffries argues that the official version of events, widely propagated by state-controlled media, is implausible,
