One of the most common misconceptions about America's form of government is that it's a democracy. It's not. The Founders established a constitutional republic. But for years — decades — anti-American forces have pumped out propaganda to convince the public that we are a democracy, while working to undermine one of the most critical elements of republicanism — the Electoral College. Constitutional expert Joe Wolverton II, J.D. joins us to discuss the need to restore republicanism.
