Julaine Appling: Wisconsin Pro-Life Organization Firebombed by Anarchists

Julaine Appling, the president of Wisconsin Family Action, told The New American how the pro-abortion anarchists attacked her organization early on Sunday, May 8, when America was getting ready to celebrate Mother's Day.

Ms. Appling condemned the attack as egregious and noted that violence and intimidation have, sadly, become a traditional resort of leftist extremists. She also suggested that the weak and indecisive leadership of Governor Tony Evers was not helpful in keeping the violent groups at bay.
