As the globalist elites of the World Economic Forum and their lackeys in the national and local governments work to transform the socioeconomic system of America to concentrate finances, power and control in their hands, the John Birch Society (JBS) works tirelessly to expose these agendas and educate people on the importance of personal liberties, limited government, and individual responsibility. Fostering these values is critically important in turbulent times when disruptive events might be triggered to ensue chaos and unrest.

In this interview with The New American, Matthew Rhodes, a regional JBS field coordinator for New England, discusses the methods by which the WEF and its aligned entities implement the Great Reset. It all starts with the perpetrators “showing up with a bag of money,” luring and bribing local officials into agreements on building infrastructure of a control grid.

Simultaneously, well-intended people are psychologically manipulated into accepting the false narratives. Luckily, the well-structured and strategic day-to-day work of the JBS members is yielding productive results in deprogramming people and opening up their hearts and minds to the values of American Constitutionalism and morality.

Mr. Rhodes also offered valuable advice on approaches to scrutinizing political candidates during elections and beyond, as
