Natasha Owens: Troubadour of God, Family and Country

Natasha Owens is an award-winning Christian and pop music sensation. An accomplished artist since 2016, her fame exploded after the 2020 election with release of her hit: "Trump Won." She has just completed her fifth studio album, "American Patriot," which combines her love of country with her worship of God.

Her sophomore album, We Will Rise, was named "Inspirational Album of the Year" at the 2018 We Love Christian Music Awards, which led to a deal with Nashville-based Radiate Music and extensive media coverage including appearances on Fox News, Newsmax, OAN, Real America's Voice, HLN, TBN and more. Natasha has been making regular appearances on the conservative circuit including appearances at CPAC Texas, CPAC Orlando, Hero's Honor Festival, Susan B. Anthony Pro-Life America Black-Tie Gala, Cotton Belt Festival and a concert performance for President Trump at the America First concert event at Mar A Lago.

"The definition of a patriot is 'a person who vigorously supports their country and is prepared to defend it against enemies or detractors,'" says the Texas native. "I'm proud to be a patriot... I love this country so much."

Natasha joins The New American senior editor Rebecca Terrell to discuss the bold, powerful message she has for all Americans in her music.
