Nebraska Passes Constitutional Carry - featuring guests Allie French & Patricia Harrold - 2A For Today

The Corn Huskers have born fruit in Nebraska! Constitutional Carry passes! Allie French of Nebraskans Against Government Overreach and Patricia Harrold of Nebraska Firearms Owners Association join us on the show this week to share their joy, celebration, and victory with us!

Allie French is the founder and leader of Nebraskans Against Government Overreach, one of the largest grassroots groups in Nebraska. NAGO aims to prevent government overreach and preserve our liberties. Over the years our focus has been on engaging the second house in our civic duties and raising public awareness through social media campaigns, rallies/events, and working with other local grassroots groups. Our 2nd Amendment right is among the top of our main focuses to advocate for. For more information visit www.nago.group

The Nebraska Firearms Owners Association is the “Voice of Nebraska Firearms Owners” leading the efforts to preserve your natural rights as guaranteed in Article 1 of our State Constitution and the Second Amendment to the U.S. Constitution.

We stand for firearms freedom and work through educational campaigns, lobbying, and special events to educate our elected representatives and fellow citizens to ensure legislation that recognizes the law-abiding citizen’s right to keep and bear arms. (www.nebraskafirearms.org)
