The Biden crime family and other powerful political players were deeply involved with the family of mob boss James 'Whitey' Bulger who remains alive despite reportedly being murdered in prison, explained tech and data entrepreneur Nick Fiorillo in this interview with The New American magazine's Alex Newman. Fiorillo, who took photos of a man alleged to be Bulger in France, says Artificial Intelligence confirms many of his findings. The news is starting to break through on major platforms, too, as the new administration begins digging. Bidens & Muller Tied to 'Staged' Bulger Killing?
