The millions of illegal migrants, and even some of those who were brought in legally, must be sent back from Europe to their home countries in the Middle East, Africa, and Asia if the West is going to survive, argued firebrand activist leader and author Martin Sellner in this interview on Conversations That Matter with The New American magazine’s Alex Newman.

Sellner, who has been repeatedly defamed and smeared by the media as a racist or even Nazi for his opposition to mass migration, warned in particular about the ongoing Islamization of Europe. He explained that across Western Europe, Islam is taking over. Historically and culturally Christian Europe must not succumb, he said.
