Polling data show longtime neoconservative “traitor” U.S. Senator Lindsey Graham is extremely vulnerable and could lose his upcoming election for the U.S. Senate in South Carolina, explained businessman and GOP challenger Mark Lynch in this interview on Conversations That Matter with The New American magazine’s Alex Newman.

Lynch, who polls massively higher than Graham among well-informed GOP primary voters, has picked up several key endorsements including General Michael Flynn (Ret), fellow GOP challenger Paul Dans who recently stepped out of the race, pro-life campaigner Abbie Johnson, and many others. Graham was also a major target of martyred conservative superstar Charlie Kirk, who was openly campaigning to have Graham ousted just weeks before his murder.

Sen. Graham is a “traitor” who has betrayed America, South Carolina, and the Republican Party and its voters, continued Lynch. While Trump inexplicably threw his support behind the long-time “Never Trump” neocon, voters in the state are seeing through it.
