Tear Gassed, SWAT Raided, & Guns Confiscated over an Alleged Misdemeanor Harassment Charge

Today on 2A For Today, we interview Brian Verburg and his son Cole. This story is part of a larger documentary involving the weaponization of government, the evolution of the Domestic Violence courts, and the what happens to Americans who get trapped in a system that is biased against them.

Brian was charged with harassment in the second degree and when the officers came to make the arrest they came with the SWAT team, battering rams, and tear gas. This is part 1 of a series on the Verburg family crisis and how a father has been abused by a system designed to protect the vulnerable. Stay tuned for the whole story.
