Washington's neocon elite have wanted war with Russia since the 1980s. Because of their reckless belligerence, Reagan banished them and called them "The Crazy's". After wandering in the wilderness for years, they finally got back into power under George W. Bush. Sidelined by Trump, they are pushing once again for aggression toward Russia (upon the pretext of Russia's relationship with the Ukraine). But what's really behind the geopolitical sabre-rattling?
