Conor Gallagher and his wife are the parents of sixteen children with Number 17 on the way – who will be an aunt or uncle to their three grandchildren (so far). Having been through the school of hard knocks so frequently, several years ago the couple founded the Well-Ordered Family, a management system “aimed at helping families reclaim order and clarity” in our hedonistic world.

Gallagher is the CEO of TAN Books. Executive Director of the Benedict Leadership Institute at Belmont Abbey College, he serves on the Board of Trustees for that school. He is also host of The Conor Gallagher Show and author of several books. He joins The New American senior editor Rebecca Terrell “In the Spotlight” to discuss one of his latest: Raising Blue-Collar Kids in a White Collar World.
