In this powerful interview, Scott Schara shares the tragic story of his 19-year-old daughter Grace, who died in 2021 at Ascension St. Elizabeth Hospital in Wisconsin. Scott discusses the family's wrongful death lawsuit against the hospital, alleging medical malpractice, lack of informed consent, and an unauthorized "Do Not Resuscitate" order that led to Grace's untimely death. Despite the jury's ruling in favor of the hospital, Scott remains determined to raise awareness about medical ethics and patient rights to prevent similar tragedies. Join The New American's Rebecca Terrell as she discusses his next steps in his saga.
