Kyle Young: J6er Free at Last

Former Washington D.C. police officer Mike Fanone says that Iowa construction worker Kyle Young assaulted him on January 6, 2021 during demonstrations at the U.S. Capitol. So on September 27, 2022, U.S. District Judge Amy Berman Jackson sentenced Young to 86 months in federal prison.

Young is one of more than 1,500 J6ers whom Trump pardoned on Inauguration Day. He's home now, and joins The New American senior editor Rebecca Terrell in the spotlight to tell his story, which began in the year 2020 when Deep State plotters showed their hand so clearly.
