Michelle Spencer is a registered nurse and whistleblower from Fresno, California who has exposed skyrocketing rates of stillbirths since the Covid-19 vaccine rollout to pregnant women.

“Healthy moms and healthy babies were suddenly being replaced by babies born dead, and nobody seemed to care,” says Spencer. “I saw a pattern, clear as day, and I couldn’t stay silent.” When her employer verified in an internal hospital email a record 22 fetal deaths in a single month in 2022, Spencer shared it with Robert F. Kennedy, Jr. (of Children’s Health Defense, at the time).

CHD is funding Spencer’s legal fees in her lawsuit against her employer for retaliating against her whistleblower efforts and failing to divulge stillbirth data for public use.
