A South Carolina state legislator single-handedly killed a bill that would have consolidated a number of health agencies and created a “healthcare czar.” He did this on the last day of the legislative session and to the displeasure of many of his colleagues. Josiah Magnuson joins TNA Daily to discuss what happened.

Also in this episode:

@ 18:21 | The EPA is facing a slew of lawsuits thanks to a rule that mandates carbon emissions cuts by 90 percent;

@ 35:14 | There is an effort to expose the corrupt collusion between the Trump lawfare and the White House;

@ 48:56 | Trump’s hush-money trial is many days in without a single satisfactory explanation of a crime.
