Dr. Torsten Trey founded the medical ethics advocacy group, Doctors Against Forced Organ Harvesting (DAFOH), in 2006 after learning about this practice in China.

He has written extensively on the topic, both in The Epoch Times and in his 2012 book, State Organs: Transplant Abuse in China. He was also featured in the 2014 documentary, Human Harvest.

Now DAFOH executive director, Dr. Trey regularly testifies about forced organ harvesting, attempting to alert world leaders about what he describes as the scope of the brutal practice in China against political opponents of its communist regime.
