In a major repercussion from last Friday's Supreme Court decision on presidential immunity, Judge Juan Merchan postponed Trump's upcoming sentencing to September 18. The possibility that the sentencing won't happen at all is very real. The New American's editorial staff discuss what this could mean when it comes to the Deep State's strategy.

Also in this episode:

Calls for Joe Biden to step down are getting louder;

Rudy Giuliani has been disbarred;

Wisconsin legislator discusses the Dairy State's electoral prospects.
