In the very latest grotesque Biden miscarriage of justice, Biden announced this morning that 37 of 40 individuals on federal death row would have their sentences changed to life in prison. Those pardoned included criminals who had committed murder in connection with drug trafficking and the murder of prison guards.

Also in this episode:

- The final CR: less of a bad thing; Why did 34 GOP representatives vote against it?
- Trump wants to annex the Panama Canal
- The politics of dementia: Biden and the media who covered for him, and Texas GOP representative Kay Granger
