No matter what happens on November 5th, the GOP is a virtual lock to take control of the Senate. The only question is by how many seats. Dems are in a panic that even some Senate seats believed secure may be flipped. But will the next Senate be an improvement on this one?

Also in this episode:

- Old Kamala Harris speech denigrating white European settlers surfaces—just in time for Columbus Day.
- J.D. Vance puts Martha Raddatz—a Democratic activist masquerading as a journalist—in her place.
- Canada: Diplomatic row with India. Plus, Liberals scheme to get rid of the wildly unpopular Justin Trudeau.
