News reports about bird flu have gushed from mainstream media spigots continuously over the last few months. And considering the track record of “public health officials,” Americans have been right to dismiss reports as anything more than fear porn. Nevertheless, bird flu has already affected food production and a former CDC director is warning that a human pandemic is inevitable thanks to the actions of humans, not the disease.

Also in this episode:

21:06 | Joe Biden and the FBI say violent crime has plunged to record lows. But, as usual, they’re almost certainly lying;

35:51 | International nationalists Javier Milei and Nigel Farage recently notched wins;

51:37 | John Birch Society CEO Bill Hahn on why Americans need to insist on the full scope of the Second Amendment.
