On the day after Vice presidential candidate J.D. Vance delivered an outstanding debate performance, Special Prosecutor Jack Smith's latest round of charges and evidence against Trump was unsealed and released to the press. The lawfare continues in the final weeks before the election, in yet another desperate gambit by the Democrats to keep Trump from reclaiming the presidency.

Also in this episode:

The Democrats are suing to try to prevent election reforms from taking effect in Georgia;

The US military is prepping for war with China by 2027.
