A wonderful Christmas morning tradition is the opening of presents under the Christmas Tree. But the gifts that matter most are not found there, nor are we given the greatest gifts just on Christmas Day. In this special episode of The New American Daily, host Steve Bonta is joined by Gary Benoit, who opens up some very special presents representing the gifts of life, salvation, our family, our priceless Constitution and the freedoms it guarantees, etc. And of course, there is the birth of the Christ Child on the first Christmas Day. What great blessings these gifts are, but how often do we think about these gifts and thank God for them? You'll not want to miss this inspiring and thought-provoking episode.
