Is it a coincidence that Donald Trump's second aspiring assassin has traveled to many areas in which the CIA was conducting operations? Not if you ask a former State Department official who knows how U.S. government special ops agencies operate. The government is so suspect that the governor of Florida is conducting its own investigation. And while all eyes are on the latest failed assassination, Sen. Josh Hawley released a concerning report about the one in Butler, Pennsylvania.

Also in this episode:

While all eyes are focused people who are trying to kill Trump, we are inching closer to a world war;

Today is the 237th anniversary of the adoption of the most brilliant governing document to date: the U.S. Constitution.
