Iran launched more than 300 missiles at Israel over the weekend, most of which were intercepted by Israel with help from the United States. What will Israel do next, and what lessons can we draw for our own security?

Also in this episode:

@ 13:40 | Republican House Speaker Mike Johnson, along with half of the lawmakers in the House, sided with the intelligence community — and against citizens — on warrantless spying.

@ 24:10 | Democratic lawmakers are going after private citizens as part of an effort at “reverse court packing.”

@ 33:30 | John Birch Society CEO Bill Hahn discusses how Birchers headed off the Convention of States at a gun event.
