Despite early indications that the World Health Organization's breath-taking power grab was facing set backs, the global outfit made major progress on usurping unprecedented powers even while vowing to redouble its efforts to finish the job, warns The New American magazine Senior Editor Alex Newman on this episode of Behind The Deep State. First, many of the key amendments to the International Health Regulations were illegally adopted. Next, communist terrorist and WHO Director-General Tedros Ghebreyesus vowed to have the International Pandemic Treaty ready by the end of this year or next summer at the latest. Humanity must resist.
