Japan must embrace nationalism and reject globalism to prevent the country from becoming like the Communist Chinese. The best first step in that fight is defunding the United Nations, which exists to usher in a one-world government, explained Japanese Senator Sen Yamanaka to The New American's Andrew Muller at TPUSA's AmFest. Senator Yamanaka, a key leader in the nationalist and "Japan First" Sanseito Party, added that digital IDs and the fake man-made "climate change" narrative must also be eradicated through education and a revival of patriotism.
