In this interview with The New American, Congressman Thomas Massie discusses his 2026 reelection campaign, his unwavering constitutional voting record, and the powerful interests aligned against him. Rep. Massie addresses attacks from President Trump, accusations of being a “RINO,” foreign lobbying pressure, and why his efforts to release the Epstein files make him a target. Massie details both his nationwide and statewide grassroots support to his opponents’ donations from a handful of out-of-state billionaires. He reveals that about 30 members of Congress are closely watching his race to determine whether it is safe for them to criticize President Trump from a constitutionalist perspective. Massie also addresses how people can encourage their own U.S. representative and senators to co-sponsor his bills on avoiding foreign entanglements, non-interventionism, restoring sound money, ending the Federal Reserve, his PRIME Act, and nationwide constitutional carry. He further explains how supporters of liberty can help back his reelection.
