The governor of Tennessee is about to sign the “Vaccine Lettuce Bill,” which will require food products laced with vaccine material to be classified as drugs. This brings attention to the concerning trend of vaccine-laced foods, which the government and private companies have been working on for many years.

Also in this episode:

@ 13:15 | Federal district courts are slamming the brakes on the Biden administration’s attempt to impose green regulations on heavy-duty vehicles.

@ 22:30 | While Wisconsin’s governor just vetoed legislation protecting girls’ sports, Oregon is backtracking on idiotic legislation it passed three years ago.

@ 33:44 | John Birch Society researcher Peter Rykowski joins us to discuss action you can take against the WHO’s pandemic treaty.
