

https://media.blubrry.com/1462062/thenewamerican.com/assets/podcast/tv/NAD_240208.mp3

Podcast: Play in new window | Download (Duration: 41:10 — 57.0MB)

Subscribe: Android | RSS | More

Nevada held its primary two days ago, but the GOP decided to ignore the primary results and go with a separate caucus instead. As a result, Donald Trump didn't even bother to put his name on Tuesday's ballot, which cleared the way for GOP also-ran Nikki Haley to carry the day — or so she thought. As it turns out, Haley couldn't even defeat "none of these candidates." Why is Haley still running? Is there a plan we don't know about?

Also in this episode:

@ 10:55 | A Michigan mom was just convicted of manslaughter — not because of what she did, but because of what her son did;

The New American

Author: Paul Dragu

Date: February 8, 2024

@ 21:31 | The ongoing protests by European farmers have recently rendered them a big victory against the EU overlords pushing the climate scam;

@ 32:35 | John Birch Society National Field Director Jon Schrock discusses recent victories Birchers have notched in Washington state and Indiana.

RELATED

Read "Haley Humiliated in Nevada, Loses to 'None of These Candidates.' Polls Show Her Losing Badly to Trump in South Carolina."

Read "EU Farmers Secure Victory Against Climate Policy, but Challenges Persist."

Click here to connect with a local JBS coordinator and get plugged in to the most effective, battle-proven patriotic organization.