Senior Editor Alex Newman and contributor Andrew Muller of The New American join us from Belém, Brazil with firsthand insights into COP30. We discuss Brazil's newly released Global Mutirão draft, how the global elite are using Indians and indigenous activists as props to push the supposed need for the UN's green new scam, the rising influence and prominence of Communist China at COP30, UNESCO's continued propagandizing efforts of children and students worldwide, and the reactions to the UN Security Council's creation of a Trump-chaired "Board of Peace" as a "transitional administration" in Gaza with a temporary International Stabilization Force.
